

The river's at its tricks again,
And we are pained to say,
Has thrown the railway out of joint
And stopped the work to-day.
At devilment the blasted thing
Is never known to fall,
And now from simple cause and effect
It kivers up the rail.

The muster roll of the ex-Confederates now contains fifty-one names.

THE BULLETIN is indebted to Hon. Garrett S. Wall for late Chicago papers.

J. W. BRAIN, Marshal of Cross Roads, Rowan county, was shot and wounded in the hand on Thursday, by Marion Tolliver, who was resisting arrest.

It is reported that the wheat crop of Indiana will not amount to more than one-third of what it was last year in consequence of the ravages of the fly.

A LITTLE child of Mr. H. J. B. Marshall, was run over by a wagon at Manchester, a few days ago, and seriously injured. One of the child's legs was badly crushed.

THE Hon. Jefferson Davis and Governor Luke P. Blackburn have been invited by the ex-Confederates to attend the Memorial services at the cemetery on the 12th inst.

At Paris some colored children, alleged to be the illegitimate offspring of the late James A. Case are suing the administrator for the possession of the estate which is valued at $30,000.

It is stated that a place to hang Craft has been selected at Grayson, midway between the court house and the jail, and that there is a promise that the execution shall be as public as possible.

THE work of laying the iron of the street railway track has been delayed by a sudden rise in the river which has submerged the rails deposited on the upper grade. Had this not occurred the road would have been finished to-day or Monday.

THE firm of Dodson & Frazee, successors to Jos. H. Dodson, have rented the grange warehouse at the corner of Second and Wall streets where they will continue conducting the grain, leaf tobacco and coal business. They will keep on hand at all times a full supply of the best grades of Pomeroy, Semi-cannel, Raymond City, Kanawha and blacksmith coal. See their advertisement elsewhere.

THE Owen News says, that the expenses of the delegates from that county who attempted to violate instructions and fraudulently nominate Col. Jones and have the nomination hurriedly announced while their wrong was in process of correction were paid.

"Expenses" is an equivocal word—and implies at best, a singular way of getting a nomination.

But who paid such expenses and how much was disguised under that phrase?

THE following persons qualified Friday as Justices of the Peace for Mason county, to-wit: W. D. Coryell, with R. P. Tolle as surety; M. F. Marsh, with S. R. Brooks as surety; Wesley Vicov, with C. B. Pearce, Jr., as surety; C. W. Williams, with J. D. Raymond as surety; Joseph M. Alexander, with John W. Alexander as surety; J. D. Raymond, with C. W. Williams as surety; Robt. As exchange says: The following recipe for washing fruit trees and a preventive of borers, has been given us by a gentleman of this vicinity who has used it with great success for years: The present is the best time for using it as the eggs are deposited at this time. Take four quarts of lime, two pounds of concentrated lye, 3 pounds of sulphur, one pound of good tobacco, two of soot, thoroughly dissolve each separately, and then mix together with about 60 gallons of water. This makes enough for thoroughly washing 500 trees of about six inches inches in diameter, and gives a fine smooth fresh bark to the trees.

Two Chances For Nearly Nothing.
The magnificent new Catholic Church at Cynthia is to be dedicated Sunday, June 3rd, with imposing ceremonies.

A camp meeting is now in progress at Canton Grove, on the K. C. R. R., which is very largely attended. Eminent ministers are present. HE HATH GIVEN HER REST.

Close down the eyelids, God hath given her rest,
Fold the hands gently over her breast,
Smooth back the tresses from her white brow,
Love's tearful duties can't waken her now.

Tread lightly, speak softly, a silent guest
Hath entered unbidden, your elysium of rest,
On the fairest, the dearest, the signet has set,
So calmly, so softly, you believe it not yet.

Shut out the sunlight, its rays cannot now
Give warmth to that beautiful marble-like brow,
But gather the flowers and lay on her breast
That in life she hath cherished and loved the best.

Speak her name softly, angels are now
Weathing immortelles to garland her brow,
Weep if you will, but think of her where
Never shall reach her, sorrow or care.

Beautiful, beautiful, dreamless and cold—
Round her death's drapery sadly we fold,
Gaze on her long, and press the last kiss
On the lips that are smiling, but passionless.

He hath given her rest, it is her's to sleep,
He hath given you grief, it is yours to weep,
Then lay her to rest for a few brief years,
Thou wilt behold in joy what was buried in tears.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Italy.
MILAN, June 1.—By the upsetting of a crowded ferryboat on the Villonai Canal near this city last evening, twenty-two workmen who were on their way home to supper were drowned. Some of the bodies have been recovered, and search for the others is in progress amid the lamentations of the families of the victims, who are gathered at the wharf.

Tonquin.
PARIS, June 1.—The Gaulois, in an account of the attack of the Annamites on the French force near Hanoi, says:

Captain Riviere, on leaving the fort, advanced with 150 marines, leaving a reserve of 250 men. These, however, remained too far in the rear to be of service to Captain Riviere's advance guard, which was surprised by a large force of Annamites and almost annihilated. On the rear guard arriving at the scene the Annamites fled, carrying off Captain Riviere and fifteen marines, all of whom were impaled the next day.

PARIS, June 1.—The long published list of officers who were killed and wounded during the sortie from Hanoi has caused a great sensation to French readers of the dispatches, to whom they came as a surprise. The news was as painful as unexpected, and the press now demands the publication of a full list of the privates who were killed and wounded.

The French have retreated to the citadel of Hanoi, and the gunboats on the river have stationed themselves so as to prevent the approach of the black flags. It is not believed that any further serious danger can reach the French troops or flotilla until the arrival of the reinforcements already on the way.

LONDON, June 1.—The dynamite conspirators, Dr. Gallagher, Bernard Gallagher, Ansbrough, Curtin, Whitehead, and Wilson, against whom true bills were found yesterday, were arraigned in the Old Bailey this morning before Justice Hawkins. They pleaded not guilty, and their trial was fixed for the 11th inst.

Tripoli.
BENGHAZI, June 1.—Turkish troops have succeeded in completely subduing the Arab who refused to pay taxes, after killing and wounding forty of them.

THE WRESTLERS.

The Men in Training for the Different Events.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—Tom Cannon, Tom Connor and Clarence Whistler, the wrestlers, who are here and in training for the tournament which takes place at the Sportsman's Park June 3, 4, 5, and 6, evidently mean business. Whistler, who generally weighs from 180 to 200 pounds, has trained down to 170 and looks as fine as a picture of physical manhood. Connor looks nearly as heavy as he did on arrival here, but Cannon has gotten rid of a lot of flesh, and now weighs but 145. Cannon resembles Acton in build, and like the "Little Terror," relies more upon science than brute force. Monday night Connor and Cannon wrestled a bout at their training quarters. Cannon got Connor's head in his grip and came very near breaking his neck. All three of these men take daily walks. This morning, had the weather been fair, they would have walked to Carondelet and returned. Edwin Bibby, who wrestled with Muldoon here, has left New York for St. Louis, and will be here by to-morrow morning. Andre Christol and Biscornes telegraph that they will leave Boston to-morrow morning, reaching here by Sunday next. Joe Acton, the little Englishman, who so far has doored all comers but Whistler, and wrestled a draw with him, leaves Philadelphia on Saturday night with his trainer, Benny Jones, and will be here Monday morning at the latest. Whistler expressed confidence in winning the first prize, but to do this he will have to defeat the best man in the world.

REPORTER.

A Carpet Flies Fifteen Miles

Chicago Times.
A carpet which was blown from the house occupied by Mr. Allen, who was killed by the recent cyclone at Sun City, Iowa, was found a day or two since in the sand hills fifteen miles from which it started, and, strange to say, but little injured by its long journey through the air.

The Sardine Mystery.

The continued disappearance of the sardines, once so abundant on the coast of Brittany, has become a serious calamity to the people of that part, where the catching has been wont to give employment to 1,500 boats and more than 9,000 fishermen, while the curing and packing for home consumption and exportation have furnished a living to a very large number of male and female hands. The reason of the disappearance is believed to be the great change of temperature during the season, the weather having for the last two or three years been not only more variable, but at times, even during the summer months, comparatively speaking, cold and stormy. These changes, it is believed, have driven the sardines toward other coasts; and up to the present time there is no token of their reappearance.
